

TRINITY PRESBYTERY SUGGESTED GUIDELINES

PULPIT SUPPLY HONORARIUM

The Presbytery Office and the Commission on Ministry are often asked for information on the appropriate amount an Honorarium should be when a minister supplies a pulpit on a Sunday, or for other services when the pastor is away, or when the church is without a pastor. The following are suggestions, understanding that a church may pay any amount it chooses. However, a church should consider the time required for preparation and travel.

1. Churches under 50 members are encouraged to provide a minimum honorarium of $100, which should be supplemented by mileage reimbursement if the supply minister must travel.

Note: IRS mileage reimbursement rate applies. Find the current rate on the IRS website: irs.gov.

2. Churches between 50 and 200 members should provide an honorarium of not less than $200, which should be supplemented by mileage reimbursement if the supply must travel.
3. Churches between 200 and 500 members should provide an honorarium of not less than $200 for one service and $300 if there are two services, which should be supplemented by mileage reimbursement if the supply must travel.
4. Churches over 500 members should provide an honorarium of not less than $300 for one service and $400 if there are two services, which should be supplemented by mileage reimbursement if the supply must travel.
